

Nordic Summer Symposium 2009 Does size matter?

Benefits and consequences of centralizing trends/hospital mergers

Sustainable production systems in the health care

Centralizing trends in health care in the Nordic countries and the Nordic Model

Strategic communication, leader-employee interaction

Management, steering practices: knowledge-, cost-, client-, quality-oriented

Support structures to handle daily hassles in work environment and production

Complex systems: creativity, innovations and ethic issues

Time: 25-26 May / 25-29 May 1,5 days for decision makers and practitioners
4 days for researchers 5 ect multidisciplinary: health/work environment, organisation/production, quality

Place: Nordic School of Public Health
Gothenburg, Sweden
A NOVO – NIVA – NHV collaboration

Still time for your ideas: content, lecturers, participants...

Contact lotta.dellve@amm.gu.se – or talk with mer today!

